

DRESS AGENCY AGREEMENT

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. Dress Agency Process

- a. We offer a 60/40 split on all sales via the dress agency in Loulabelle Does Vintage. For every item that you sell through us, you will receive 40% of the profit.
- b. To drop off items with us, you will need to schedule a drop off appointment. This appointment will be around 60 minutes and allows us to inspect items and return any that don't fit our criteria.
- c. We will hold your stock for 28 days. A date of collection will be provided when your items are dropped off. A text reminder will be sent within a day of your collection date.
- d. All items must be collected on the agreed upon date. If you cannot collect your items, we will donate them to a local charity.
- e. Payment for your items sold will be made via bank transfer on the collection date.
- f. At the time of item drop off, you can set a minimum price that you would be prepared to sell your item at. This gives us room to provide better prices and to ensure that your piece sells. Any reductions in price will be made at our discretion, but we will not go below the minimum.
- g. We will only retain personal information while we have your items in our possession. This information is destroyed following your collection date.

2. Item Guidelines

- a. We have a limit of 10 items per person at one time. You can not drop off any additional items until your collection date has been reached.
- b. Clothes and items must be clean and laundered before drop off.
- c. All buttons and zips should be in working order.
- d. Any woollen items should be free from bobbles.
- e. We do not accept any fast fashion or supermarket brands, such as Shein, Boohoo and George.
- f. We do not accept stolen or counterfeit items. If you are selling designer shoes or handbags through us, we recommend providing proof of authenticity to achieve the best price.

3. Disclaimer

- a. We reserve the right to decline items that do not meet our criteria. When you drop off your items, you will be provided with a list of all accepted items.
- b. While your garments are with us, we will take all necessary precautions to care for them. Loulabelle Does Vintage does not take responsibility for any loss, damage or theft of items that are in our possession.
